Sir, OK/

I have the honour to submit herewith the entire correspondence relating to the levy of octroi duty on sugar and jaggory imported into the Chickballapur town limits for the improvement of the financial resources of the Municipality and to state that the President reports that an income of Rs. 3,000/- is expected annually from the levy of octroi duty on sugar and jaggory which would be a source of income to the Municipality to undertake some of the schemes which are long pending before them

The subject was discussed by the Council at a meeting held on the 20th February 1922 and it was resolved that the octroi on these articles should be levied. Thereupon the draft bye laws were published in the Mysore Gazette dated the 13th July 1922 calling for objections if any, from the people affected thereby. The citizens of Chickballapur having presented an objection petition to the proposed levy of octroi the same was duly considered by the Council at a meeting held on the 24th August 1922 and it was resolved that, the draft bye laws with the objections received may be submitted to Government for sanction The President reports that the original bye-laws of 1917 are sufficient and there is no necessity for fresh bye laws at present and proposes that the schedule of taxes may be -- be amended by adding this duty therein The levy of octroi duty was in force in the Town till 1905 when it was resolved at the request of the townspeople to abolish it thereafter. (vide resolution dated the 28th April 1905 enclosed) The improvement of the financial condition of the Municipality is very necessary to meet the heavy expenditure involved therefor

I therefore request you to be so good as to kindly -- obtain the sanction of Government to the proposed levy of octroi duty on sugar and jaggory that will be imported into the Town at the rates specified in the schedule of the rules

The draft modified bye-laws and schedule of taxes with copies of resolutions of the Council on the subject are herein -- enclosed for kind perusal
